Beutel brings extensive experience to his new role from managing his own financial services practices in Colorado and Texas over the past nine years. He holds a Master's Degree from Loyola Marymount University and earned his BA degree at Stanford University. He will be based in the firm's Houston office which opened in 2014.

Huntley joins The Mather Group's corporate office in Oak Brook Terrace, IL. He most recently managed client portfolios and relationships at an investment firm in his hometown of Springfield, MO. Huntley holds an MBA from Missouri State University, where he also earned his BS degree in Finance and Risk Management. He previously served in the Air Force for six years as a First Line Supervisor.

The Mather Group is a fee-only Registered Investment Advisor focused on guiding corporate executives into successful retirement. Launched in 2011 after breaking away from Morgan Stanley, the firm is consistently ranked as one of the fastest growing RIAs in the country with more than $700 million in assets under management. The firm has offices in Oak Brook Terrace, IL and Houston, TX.
